Civil Action NO. 06-315-JJF

RE: Correspondance (Request for granting of Motion to Compel)

(1 of 2)

Dear Sir,

In light of the defendants production
of Medical records, however, untimely, the plaintiff request to have the said "motion to compel" granted for the record.
The records hold demonstrated evidence, that events
took place consistant to what the plaintiff complains.
Moreover, the defendants contend they had no knowledge,
or, awareness, but were on duty that day in question and never suggested they were elsewhere or, was restricted from performing their duties as Correctional officers.

Therefore, plaintiff asks this honorable court to use the interest of justice to overcome, and be exception to the rule in the instant case, so the plaintiff can prevail justly.

Thank you for your time, and effort.

Respectfully
